ZENDARINA

TRAPEZE ARTIST X ZABELARINA

ZENDARINA is an athletic, scopey filly that combines the brilliance and precocity of multiple Group 1-winning sprinter Trapeze Artist with the class and proven influence of a five time winning mare, Zabelarina, a daughter of Bel Esprit out of Zumberina (by Zabeel).

While her dam is by Bel Esprit, this filly still carries the highly successful Snitzel x Zabeel family influence, a cross that has produced an exceptional strike rate of winners and stakes performers.

Hand-selected for her pedigree strength and physical presence, she will be trained by Group 1-winning trainer Phillip Stokes.

Her racing profile points to a 1200m–1600m range, blending Trapeze Artist's speed and brilliance with Bel Esprit's precocity and Zabeel's class and stamina.
