SAVABEEL

Ten-time Champion New Zealand Sire and the sire of 35 Group 1 winners

The very best racehorses with the very best pedigrees on occasion make the very best stallions. That recipe belongs to Savabeel, our magnificent son of all-conquering Zabeel, who has now won the Grosvenor Award (Champion NZ Sire) for ten of the last 11 seasons. Additionally, he has also won his ninth consecutive Centaine Award and has 153 stakes winners and 100 individual Group winners, including 35 Group 1 winners. He has also won ten Dewar Awards and, in May of 2025, was inducted into the New Zealand Racing Hall of Fame.

In the modern era, no New Zealand-based stallion comes close to achieving the results of Savabeel. The Grosvenor Award is based on progeny earnings, the Dewar Award on combined Australian and New Zealand progeny earnings, and the Centaine Award is for combined progeny earnings worldwide.

To have consistently captured those three stallion awards is testimony to the dominance of Savabeel – it says it all. At Waikato Stud, we acknowledge the significant role played by Savabeel in elevating Waikato Stud to top ranking as the leading vendor at Karaka for seven straight years (2014 – 2020). Savabeel's exemplary record of achievement extends to a consistent 73 per cent winners to runners ratio and 11 per cent stakes winners to runners ratio. Not unlike his own sire Zabeel, Savabeel's level of success has remained consistent if not elevated with maturity.

In 2022, star mare Probabeel retained her New Zealand Thoroughbred Horse of the Year title after an excellent 2021/22 season which saw her win the Gr.1 Caulfield Stakes. The daughter of Savabeel is now a broodmare.

In the 2022/2023 season, we saw I Wish I Win explode onto the Australian racing scene. Having made his mark in New Zealand with trainer Jamie Richards, under the care of Peter Moody, he took out the A$10M Golden Eagle, followed by a triumphant display of his turn of foot to win the Gr.1 TJ Smith. The latter victory crowned a memorable Saturday at Randwick for Savabeel, as it became a Group 1 double with Major Beel dominating in the Australian Derby – showcasing the versatility of his sire.

It was an extraordinary seven days for Savabeel, as back at Randwick just a week later, Chris Waller's Atishu became his 31st Group 1 winner when taking out the Queen of the Turf Stakes. She was a $260,000 purchase by Go Racing at the 2019 Karaka Book 1 Yearling Sales, and we couldn't be any prouder of what our champion Savabeel is achieving.

In the 2023/2024 season, Orchestral burst onto the scene as a three-year-old, claiming Trans-Tasman Group 1 victories in the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby and Gr.1 Vinery Stud Stakes. She also secured the Karaka Million 3YO and Gr.2 Avondale Guineas, capping off an impressive campaign by becoming her sire's 33rd Group 1 winner.

And this season, 2024/2025, Savaglee dominated the Gr.1 NZ 2000 Guineas, securing Savabeel his 34th Group 1 winner. Tony Rider's Provence followed with victory in the Gr.1 Thorndon Mile, marking Savabeel's 35th.

In total, Savabeel is the sire of 35 Group 1 winners, the others being: Provence, Savaglee, Pris De Fer, Concert Hall, Mo'unga, The Chosen One, Noverre, Cool Aza Beel, Nicoletta, Shillelagh, Savvy Coup, Sword Of Osman, Hasahalo, Embellish, Kawi, Lucia Valentina, Diademe, Costume, Brambles, Hall Of Fame, Pasadena Girl, Sangster, Savaria, Scarlett Lady, Soriano, Sound Proposition, The Perfect Pink, Amarelinha, Savy Yong Blonk, Skew Wiff and Orchestral.

Like Ocean Park, on the track Savabeel won the most prestigious weight-for-age race in Australasia – the W.S. Cox Plate.

Class has prevailed – Savabeel's truly leaving an indelible legacy on the racing and breeding worlds.
